

^b
UNIVERSITÄT
BERN

Prof. Dr. Susan Emmenegger, LL.M. (Cornell)

- Academic Functions:
- Full professor for private law and banking law
 - Director of the Institute of Banking Law
 - Co-Director of the Institute of Private Law
 - Adjunct Professor, Cornell Law School
- Other Functions:
- Member of the academic council of the Max-Planck-Institute of foreign and international law, Hamburg, Germany
 - Member of the Swiss Government's Advisory Board on Financial Policy and Regulation
 - Member of the academic council of the German Banking Law Conference
 - Co-Editor of the Swiss Review of Business Law (SZW)
 - Co-Editor of the Journal of Legal Practice and Education (recht)
 - Editor of the book series "Swiss Banking Law Conference"
 - Editor for financial markets law of the Review Jusletter.
- Previous Functions
- Vice-President of the Swiss Takeover Board (until 2017)
 - Member of the Brunetti Commission (Swiss government's advisory board on financial policy and regulation; until 2015)

Curriculum Vitae

- 1971–1986 Schools in Fribourg (AFS exchange student, USA)
- 1986–1987 Volunteer with the Colombian Red Cross, Cali, Colombia
- 1988–1992 Law studies at the University of Fribourg and at the University of Bologna Law Schools, J.D.
- 1992–1993 LL.M. degree, Cornell University Law School
(Rotary ambassadorial scholar; associate editor of the Cornell International Law Journal)
- 1993 Bar exam of the State of New York
- 1993–1994 Associate, Thomas Ré & Partners, New York
- 1995–1996 Research assistant, Max-Planck-Institut for foreign and private international law, Hamburg
(advising German courts on US law and international private law)
- 1996–1997 Law Clerk, district court of Zurich
- 1999 PhD degree, University of Fribourg
(Thesis: feminist critique of contract law, summa cum laude. Awarded with the Walther Hug award [Switzerland], the Gottlob award [Fribourg Law Faculty], and award for gender studies [University of Fribourg])
- 1999 Bar exam of the canton of Zurich
- 1999–2000 Swiss Banking Commission (today: Swiss Financial Markets Supervisory Authority, FINMA)
(Licensing of new banks, supervising bank mergers, regulatory enforcement)
- 2001–2002 Scholarship, Swiss National Foundation (Habilitation): Hamburg, Berkeley, Paris
- 2002–2004 Associate Professor, University of Fribourg, Chair for Private Law
- 2004 Habilitation at the University of Fribourg, venia legendi for private law, commercial law and legal theory
(Thesis: The Internal Governance of Banks. Foundations for the Coordination between Corporate Law and Supervisory Law)
- 2004–2005 Full professor, University of Fribourg, Chair for Private Law
- Since 2005 Full professor for Private Law and Banking Law, University of Bern, Director of the Institute of Banking Law, Co-Director of the Institute of Private Law
- 2009–2010 Visiting Scholar, European University Institute (Florence)
(sabbatical; research: legal methodology, book published in 2012: Commentary of Art. 1 of the Swiss Civil Code, on the application, interpretation, gap filling in Swiss law, 302 p., together with Axel Tschentscher)

Since 2014

Adjunct Professor, Cornell Law School

2015-2016

Hauser Global Fellow, Program on Corporate Compliance and Enforcement, New York University Law School