

The University of Bern Law School is seeking highly qualified candidates for a visiting professor position in the exciting and rapidly evolving field of Artificial Intelligence and the Law. This unique opportunity invites individuals with a deep understanding of the intersection between AI and legal principles to contribute to the academic community.

Visiting Professor in Artificial Intelligence and the Law

Term: Fall Term 2024 (Mid-September to Mid-December)

Responsibilities:

- Teach a class and conduct a seminar during the fall term
- Engage in mentorship and contribute to the academic development of students
- Administer exams (January 2025, online with local support)
- Participate in faculty and university activities, notably regarding questions of AI and the Law

Qualifications:

- Demonstrated excellence in research, with a focus on Artificial Intelligence and its legal implications
- Strong interest in teaching and commitment to mentorship
- Ability to contribute to and stimulate research and student interest in the interaction between AI and law

Remuneration and Other Benefits:

- Salary:
 - CHF 48,000 for applicants holding a professorial position or possessing a "habilitation"
 - CHF 34,000 for applicants with a Ph.D.
- Other Benefits:
 - Stipend of CHF 6,500 for initial and final travel expenses as well as work-related travel during the tenure.

Please send your application materials (cover letter, C.V.) to therese.sommer@unibe.ch with the subject line "Visiting Professor AI and Law Application." The deadline for applications is 30 April 2024.

The University of Bern Law School is committed to diversity and encourages applicants from all backgrounds to apply. We value equal opportunities and strive to create an inclusive and supportive academic environment.